Chief Reports

Beat time has remained consistent

Cst. Scott Gee is Use of Force trainer. A partnership has been formed between Brockville and Gananoque for use of force training in exchange for use of firearms/ammo and range.

Trailer hitches have been installed on the police vehicles for the transporting of police bikes if necessary.

Jim stated he would like to see officers issuing more parking tickets at the Municipal Marina.

Financial Reports – new column to be set up for Special Constables

All training except for mandatory training has been cancelled.

Separate accounts to be set up and used for BackCheck. Set up as Investigative Services.

Any variances in accounts to be taken back to Council for approval.

Account 1-5-02600-5502 – leasing account to be checked.

John and Barb Nalon attended PSB meeting with noise complaint issues. Option for all parties to get together and voice concerns is an option.

Noise Complaint by-law is presently being revamped. If the base fine is set to high there may be reluctance on the officer's part to lay the fine.

Discussion of Freedom of Information requests – these requests create large amounts of work. Kai will discuss issue with Sgt. White and report back at next meeting.

YIPI – Twelve youths have been hired with one position being a supervisory position. The old festival office is being used as base. YIPI information has been posted on the police website with a calendar outlining details.

Graffiti posters have been created and distributed. Information is also on police website. Officers are working with teachers trying to identify youths who may be involved with this tagging. Home Hardware and Canadian Tire have been requesting to watch the sale of spray paint to youths and request ID for same.

Cunningham Swann invoice.

Motion to pay invoice.

Moved by Graham Armstrong.

Motion to sign letter to make Special Constables part of Part-time Civilian's contract signed by Chris McDonald and witnessed by Rhonda Robeson. Copies to be provided to Cst. Rich Swann for his signature.

Moved by Jim Garrah

Chief Liu gave a short briefing on his trip to China.

Copy of personnel documentation for Cst. Boulton provided to Board in relation to an arrest made regarding drug charges as a result of information received from informant. Kudos to Gord.
