MEDIA RELEASE

July 4 2018

On July 4, 2018 officers attended a Gananoque business for a report of a male who was outside acting in a bizarre manner. Further investigation determined the male was under the influence of drugs and further had missed a recent probation appointment. The 20-year-old male from Gananoque of no fixed address was arrested and charged with failing to comply with conditions of his probation order. The accused was held in custody pending a bail hearing.

July 4, 2018

On July 4, 2018 The Gananoque Police Service received multiple 911 calls to attend a residence for what was believed to be a domestic dispute in progress. A female victim was calling out for help alerting people to call police. Officers attended the house and could see the female victim on the floor inside the residence and her common law partner over top of her. Officers were required to force entry into the house and the accused was arrested without incident. As a result, a 71-year-old male from Gananoque has ben charged with assault and held in custody pending a bail hearing in Brockville.
