On June 13th, 2018, a male party attended the Gananoque Police Service reporting a domestic incident which had occurred approximately one month prior, at the residence that the couple shared. Police conducted an investigation resulting in a 43 year old Gananoque man being charged with one count of Assault and one count of Utter Threats to Cause Bodily Harm. The accused was contacted and turned himself in to police and was later released on a Promise to Appear and Undertaking with Conditions.
